Notes

Except as noted, our (lower) €uro prices do not include Bike Rental or Shipping.

We differentiate this way because it is easier for Europeans to bring their own bikes, and many do. Renting our bikes is, of course, possible at additional cost. Riders from outside of Europe / North America generally do this. The cost of bike rental and shipping is shown on the pages devoted to each trip, in the "Facts & Figures" table, at the bottom of each page.

(1) Prices thus marked include 3 lunches, and "Daily Baggage Transfer" service in Norway. Our "Baggage Transfer" web page, <http://bluemarble.org/BagTrsr.html> (click "Norway Particularities") offers details.

These € prices include the use of a mountain bike in Norway. So do $ prices, but $ prices always include the bike, where € prices generally do not.

(2) Tour de France, 2-week France, and 2-week France & Italy departures vary in price. See their respective pages for the regions visited by each individual departure, and for each departure's price.

(3) Economical Access Package options add an additional day to the end of "Celtic Spain" and "Green Spain."

The extra day allows for a visit of Santiago de Compostela, Galicia's most beautiful city. See the "Access Packages" for details.
